

STUART M. LEVINE

(February 9, 1938 – April 14, 2026)

*Obituary published on Legacy.com by Shaughnessey
Banks Funeral Home - Fairfield on Apr. 14, 2026.*

Stuart M. Levine passed away on April 13, 2026 at age 88. Stuart was born on February 9, 1938. He was raised along with his brother, Bert Levine in Suffern, New York, by his father Charles Levine, who owned a clothing store in the town, and his mother Ruth Levine.

Stuart attended Suffern High School and the Petty School and graduated from Princeton University, where he was an English major, rowed on the lightweight crew team, and was in the Tower Club. Stuart then attended the University of Pennsylvania Law School where he was a moot court champion, before becoming a construction litigator and a name partner at the New York City boutique construction law firm Sacks, Montgomery, Pastore & Levine. In the latter half of his career, Stuart served as President of a trucking delivery company, Advanced Delivery Systems, based in Fairfield County, Connecticut, while maintaining a part-time law practice with the firm.

In his spare time, Stuart loved sports and over the years participated in many including marathon running, rowing crew, tennis, and as his wife Linnea was a competitive figure skater, he gallantly joined her on the ice as well. He also became an avid hockey fan and regularly attended games of the New Jersey Devils, Princeton Tigers, and West Point Black Knights, and kept a large collection of pucks caught at games.

Stuart was known for his wit, humor, and turn of a phrase, with a love of language and puns. From the 1970s to the 1990s, he lived in Sleepy Hollow, New York, and after meeting his wife Linnea moved to Fairfield County, Connecticut, where he lived for the past 35 years. He loved his wife, his kids, his grandkids, his dogs, and sitting around crackling fires while living in the woods in Weston, Connecticut.

Stuart is survived by his wife, Linnea Levine; his children, Jim Levine, Melissa Soll, and Chris Ranucci; and his grandchildren Natalie, John, Zoe, Elias, Kennedy, Kamryn, Kortney, and Austin. He was predeceased by his beloved eldest son Bob Levine, who passed away in 2020, and his younger brother Bert Levine, who passed away in 2021.

Stuart will be buried at a private graveside service at the Hillside Cemetery in Wilton, Connecticut. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to one of Stuart's favorite organizations, Little People of America: <https://www.lpaonline.org/>